1. Observance - This Congregation shall observe the tenets of Conservative Judaism as propounded by the United Synagogue of America.

ARTICLE VI - MEMBERSHIP

1. Any person of the Jewish faith of good moral character shall be eligible for membership in this Congregation.

ARTICLE VII - RIGHTS OF MEMBERS

1. Subject to the restriction contained in Article XV, Section 11, every member of the Congregation in good standing shall have these rights:

a. To attend and take part in all meetings of the Congregation; to the matriculation of his/her children in the religious school; for the Bar Mitzvah, Bat Mitzvah and Confirmation of his/her children in the Synagogue; to make use of the Synagogue for weddings for himself/herself and his/her children; to attend services with his/her family; to a cemetery plot in the cemetery; and to the services of the Rabbi upon all proper occasions; all in accordance with the rules that may from time to time be established. All of the foregoing shall be subject to the provisions of this Constitution and By-Laws, and the Rules, Regulations and Resolutions of the Board of Directors.

ARTICLE VIII OFFICERS, TRUSTEES AND BOARD OF DIRECTORS

1. The Officers of this Congregation shall be a President; Ritual Vice President; Membership Vice President; House Vice President; Education Vice President; Communications Vice President; Treasurer; Recording Secretary; School Treasurer; Financial Secretary; and five Trustees.
2. The Board of Directors shall consist of the following:
 - a. The Officers and Trustees.
 - b. The elected Directors from the membership of the Congregation.
 - c. The President of the Sisterhood.
 - d. The President of the Men's Club.
 - e. The past Presidents who are members of the Congregation in good standing.
 - f. Chairs of the standing Committees.
 - g. The President of U.S.Y.
3. Vacancies on the Board of Directors, Trustees or Officers shall be filled by a majority vote of the Board of Directors, except the office of President which shall be filled under Article XVI. 2.g. In the discretion of the President, a nominating committee may be convened to address vacancies on the Board of Directors or in any of the Officer or Trustee positions.
4. No member shall be eligible to hold office until he/she shall have been a member for at least two years and in good standing at the time of election.
5. No member shall be eligible for the Board of Directors until he/she shall have been a member for one year and be in good standing at the time of election.
6. No member holding office in any other Congregation or Synagogue shall hold office in this Congregation while holding such other office.

ARTICLE IX - TERM OF OFFICE AND SUCCESSION IN OFFICE

1. Term of office.
 - a. Each Officer shall have a term of one year or until a successor is chosen in his/her place or if elected subsequent to the Annual Meeting, then until the next Annual Meeting,
 - b. Each Trustee shall have a term of five years, and
 - c. Each Director shall have a term of three years.
2. Succession in office.
 - a. No Officer of the Congregation other than the House Vice-President, the Recording Secretary, and the Trustees shall serve more than two consecutive terms in the same office.

b. No member of the Board of Directors who may have served for three consecutive years may succeed himself/herself in office. A retiring member of the Board of Directors may, however, be elected as an Officer or Trustee or may be appointed Chair of a Standing Committee.

c. Chairs of Standing Committees may succeed themselves in office, except as otherwise provided herein.

ARTICLE X - MEETINGS OF THE CONGREGATION

1. Annual Meeting. An annual meeting of the Congregation shall be held at the Synagogue during the month of June in each year on such date as the Board of Directors shall determine. The Recording Secretary shall send written notice of such meeting to all members at their addresses as recorded on the books of the Congregation at least fifteen days prior thereto.

2. Quorum. Twenty-five members in good standing of the Congregation shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business at the annual meeting.

3. Special Meetings. Special Meetings of the Congregation shall be called (1) by the President at his/her discretion (2) Upon the written request of five or more members of the Board of Directors, or (3) Upon the written request of twenty-five members in good standing of the Congregation. All such requests shall state the purpose or purposes of said meeting. In the event that the President fails to call a meeting within five days of being requested to do so, the Communications Vice-President shall issue such call. The Recording Secretary shall send written notices of such meeting to all members at their addresses as recorded on the books of the Congregation at least fifteen days prior thereto.

ARTICLE XI - NOMINATIONS

Nominating Committee. At the meeting of the Board of Directors in the month of February in each year, a nominating committee of seven members and two alternates for the election of the officers and directors of the Congregation shall be designated. The nominating committee shall be constituted as follows: The President shall designate three members, one of whom may be appointed by him/her as Chair: the Board of Directors shall designate four members and two alternates. Only members of the Congregation in good standing who shall have been members five years may serve on the nominating committee. The nominating committee shall be responsible for identifying nominees for all vacant offices, Board of Director positions and Trustee positions.

In the event that a President is nominated to serve a second consecutive term, the nominating committee shall nominate a "President Elect" at least one year prior to the expiration of the President's second term. The President Elect must meet the qualifications to serve as an Officer of the Congregation and should be a current or immediate past Officer, or a current trustee or current member of the Board of Directors. The President Elect shall not have separate duties other than those already held by the person nominated, nor shall the President Elect become an Officer of the Congregation unless the person nominated already is an Officer.

No later than thirty days before the Annual Meeting, the nominating committee shall certify to the Secretary the nominees for the offices and directors to be filled at the Annual Meeting, and the list shall be posted conspicuously in the Synagogue open to the inspection of the members of the Congregation at least twenty days before the Annual Meeting, and a copy of the list shall be mailed to each member of the Congregation not less than ten days prior to the Annual Meeting.

In addition to the nominees on the nominating committee list, written nominations may be made from the floor at the Annual Meeting, provided that such nominations shall carry the signatures of at least ten members in good standing. In the event that a nominating committee is convened to fill mid-term vacancies, reasonable notice of the committee's recommendations shall be provided to the Congregation, before such nominees are submitted to the Board of Directors pursuant to Article VIII.3.

ARTICLE XII - ELECTIONS

1. Election of Officers, trustees and members of the Board of Directors shall take place at the Annual Meeting and shall be by a majority vote.
2. All elected Officers, trustees and members of the Board of Directors shall be inducted in June and shall take office on July 1.
3. The Directors shall have a term of three years with eight Directors being elected each year.
4. No member shall be eligible to cast a ballot unless he/she is in good standing at the time of the election.
5. For purposes of voting, each member shall be entitled to cast one ballot. No proxies shall be permitted.

ARTICLE XIII - ADMINISTRATION

The Board of Directors shall have the control and management of the property, real and personal, and the equipment and facilities of every kind belonging to the Congregation; it shall enunciate and direct the policies of the Congregation and of its auxiliaries; it shall set all dues, fees, and charges in and about the Congregation; it shall engage all necessary dignitaries and employees; it shall pass upon all applications for membership, and it shall, in general, administer the affairs of the Congregation according to the Constitution and By-Laws.

ARTICLE XIV - AMENDMENTS

This Constitution and By-Laws or any part thereof, may be amended, altered or repealed in the following manner: A petition in writing signed by any member of the Congregation, setting forth the proposed amendment, alteration or repeal, shall be filed with and considered by the Board of Directors, and if the Board of Directors recommends the adoption of such amendment, alteration or repeal, the same shall then be read at the next Annual Meeting of the Congregation or at a special meeting called for that purpose. If the Board of Directors does not recommend said petition, then upon the written petition of twenty-five members in good standing, the President shall present the proposed amendment, alteration or repeal to the next meeting of the Congregation. If such proposed amendment, alteration or repeal received the affirmative vote of at least two-thirds of the members present at such meeting, it shall become part of the Constitution or By-Laws, as the case may be.

ARTICLE XV - THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS

1. Regular meetings of the Board of Directors shall be held monthly. The Board of Directors shall determine the monthly night.
2. A special meeting of the Board of Directors shall be called by the President at the request in writing of not less than eight members of the Board of Directors to the President. All such requests shall state the purpose or purposes of said meeting. Notice of such meeting shall be sent to each Director not less than three days prior to such meeting by the Recording Secretary of the Congregation in writing by mail to all members of the Board of Directors, directed to their addresses as they appear on the books of the Congregation.
3. No business, other than as stated in said notice shall be transacted at a special meeting whether of the Congregation or Board of Directors without the unanimous consent of all members present at said meeting.
4. Quorum and voting. Fifteen members of the Board of Directors shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business. A majority vote of those directors present shall be required, unless otherwise provided herein.
5. Absences. Any member of the Board of Directors who is absent from three consecutive meetings of the Board of Directors without good and sufficient cause may have his/her office declared vacant by the Board of Directors at a regular or special meeting of the Board of Directors, provided notice of such proposed action shall have been sent by mail to such member of the Board of Directors at the address appearing on the books of the Congregation, and a hearing given such member thereon.

6. Suspensions and Expulsions. At a regular or special meeting the Board of Directors, in its sole judgment and determination, may suspend or expel any member of the Congregation who is not in good standing, or for other good and sufficient cause, upon sending notice thereof to such member, by registered or certified mail, to the address on the books of the Congregation. Such member shall then have the right, within 10 days after the mailing of such notice, to make a written request of the Recording Secretary for a hearing before the Board of Directors. In such event, such hearing shall be held within 60 days from the date of receipt of the written request for a hearing, and written notice of the hearing date shall be sent to such member at least ten days prior to the date of the hearing. A vote of at least 3/4 of the members present shall be required for action hereunder.

7. Committees. The Board of Directors shall administer its duties through standing committees and appointed committees. Each member of the Board of Directors shall serve on at least one committee.

8. Supervision. All committees shall function under the Board of Directors' supervision.

9. Reports. The Board of Directors shall keep accurate minutes, roll calls and records of its meeting, and its Officers and committees shall make full written reports of their doings at each Annual meeting of the Congregation.

10. Regular meetings of the Board of Directors shall be open to members of the Congregation.

11. Obligations. No member will be issued tickets for any High Holiday services unless he/she is in good standing and pays a portion of his/her dues for the current year as may be decided upon by the Board of Directors from time to time; provided that the Board of Directors may, in its discretion, waive this requirement.

12. Application for Membership. Each application shall be accompanied by a payment of at least one quarter year's dues or such other amount as the Board of Directors may determine. A vote of at least three-fourths of the members present at such meeting shall be necessary to accept any application. The President shall send to each new member a letter of notification of acceptance and welcome.

13. Rules and Regulations. To promote the welfare and carryout the purposes of the Congregation, the Board of Directors shall, from time to time, adopt, promulgate and enforce such rules and regulations, and take such action, as it may deem necessary: for the governing of all property, finances and affairs of the Congregation; for the conduct and management of all persons while on its premises or engaged in its activities; for the use of any of its properties or facilities; and for any other matters that may come within its jurisdiction.

14. Auxiliary Groups. (1) No auxiliary groups connected with or functioning under the auspices of the Congregation shall be formed unless approved by a two-thirds vote of the Board of Directors, which shall at all times retain supervision and control over the activities of such groups. (2) The Constitution By-Laws and actions of such groups must receive prior approval by a majority vote of the Board of Directors. (3) All funds of such groups in excess of working funds, which will be established by agreement with the Board of Directors, shall be turned over to the Congregation.

15. No Temple member who is also employed by the Temple for more than an average of 10 hours per week shall be eligible to hold office or serve on the Board of Directors.

ARTICLE XVI – OFFICERS AND TRUSTEES

1. The President. It shall be the duty of the President to: preside at all meetings of the Congregation and of the Board of Directors; call all the meetings of the Congregation; sign all agreements, contracts, deeds and other documents with the Congregation pursuant to appropriate resolutions by the Board of Directors, the Congregation, or the Board of Trustees; countersign all checks, vouchers and notes, together with the Treasurer, as may be directed by the Board of Directors, the Congregation, or the Board of Trustees; represent the Congregation, to carry on the business of the Congregation in accordance with these By-Laws and the rules and regulations of the Board of Directors; and to appoint the chairs of all committees not otherwise provided for in these By-laws.
